FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE KEOKUK COIN CLUB

Welcome to this special issue of The Iowa Collector!

We members of the Keokuk Coin Club thought your soon-to-retire editor, Owen McKee, could use a break as he looks for a successor to his difficult job. So, we decided to put together an issue for him. In fact, we'd even like to issue a friendly challenge to Iowa's other coin clubs to do the same! Just as different local clubs take turns hosting the Iowa Numismatic Association's annual convention and show, why couldn't clubs take turns providing the content of an issue of The Iowa Collector?

That's the idea we came up with, anyway. And perhaps it was a bit easier for us to see it because last year we briefly went into the publishing business, sponsoring the publication of a booklet by one of our members, Tom Gardner, whose The Tokens of Keokuk, Iowa has just won a cataloging award from the Token and Medal Society. We're real pleased about this, because we still have copies of this booklet to sell, for $7.00 at our meetings and shows and for $8.00 by mail. Perhaps you would like to buy one--our address is Box 172, Keokuk, Iowa 52632.

Anyway, Tom no sooner got his book into print than he began to find out about unlisted tokens from Keokuk, eight altogether (so far), and his description of them constitutes one of the articles in this special issue.

We also thought we ought to start a series of short articles that would all run with the title "My Favorite _____." The author gets to fill in that blank with a word or phrase like "Coin," "Token," "Obsolete Bank Note," "Pattern," or what have you. This time you'll be reading about Raymond Morrow's enthusiasm for the under-appreciated Two Dollar Silver Certificate, Series of 1899.

Finally, we have an article that all of us in the Keokuk Coin Club contributed ideas to. It is written for the novice collector, and we also intend to submit it to our local newspaper, the Keokuk Daily Gate City. We thought that other coin clubs might like having it as the basis for an article they might write and submit to their local newspaper.

Well, all of this makes a larger than usual issue of The Iowa Collector. But we hope it is an issue you all enjoy.

Robert E. Smith, President
The Keokuk Coin Club

FOR THE BEGINNING COIN COLLECTOR

By The Members Of The Keokuk Coin Club

When you're just starting out as a coin collector, one of the first decisions you have to make is what, exactly, to collect. There are lots of possibilities.

Some numismatists (that's a fancy name for someone who studies and collects coins) collect just one coin of each type. They will collect just one Eisenhower Dollar, one Kennedy Half Dollar, one Washington Quarter, one Roosevelt Dime, one Jefferson Nickel, one Lincoln Cent, and so on, also collecting one of each type of coin that no longer circulates, too. Type collectors usually don't try to get coins with really rare dates, but they do try to get coins that show as little wear as possible.

Other coin collectors will specialize in just the coins of a particular type, or denomination, collecting as many different dates and mint marks as they can. (A mint mark is the letter or two, usually under the date, that tells you where the coin was made. "D" is for Denver; "S" is for San Francisco, etc.) You can buy inexpensive "coin boards" that will help if you decide to collect coins by series.

Of course, there are any number of other ways a person might collect coins, though by type or by series are the two most popular. One really interesting way to collect is by the design that's pictured on the coin. You might try to collect all of the coins you can with, say, eagles on them. That would be a lot of U.S. coins and even more foreign coins! You could also collect a lot of coins with just horses on them, or homes on them, or famous women on them. The possibilities are endless!

Once you have decided that you want to be a coin collector, there are two things you ought to do before you collect many coins. The first would be to get a book or two on coin collecting. The Keokuk Public Library has many books on coin collecting, covering many different specialties. If you decide to buy a book, a good one to start out with is R.S. Yeoman's Guide Book of United States Coins. Collectors sometimes call this "The Red Book," because the cover is always red. The Red Book comes out in a new edition each year. You can buy a copy at most book stores or coin shops.

The second thing you'll want to do is to join a local coin club. You can learn a lot from more experienced club members, as well as trade with them to get coins that you won't find in circulation. Some clubs also have auctions at their meetings, where members will sell to the highest bidder coins that they no longer want. We do all of this. We're the Keokuk Coin Club, and we meet the fourth Thursday of each month, usually at the Keokuk Senior High School Library. And we're always happy to have new coin collectors stop by to meet us.

MY FAVORITE BANK NOTE

by Raymond W. Morrow

The United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing has produced a number of beautiful bank notes during its history. Among the most popular are the U.S. Silver Certificates, Series of 1896 (the so-called "Educational Series"), the "Chief Onepapa" Five Dollar Silver Certificate of 1899, and the "American Bison" Ten Dollar Legal Tender Note of 1901. However, even in the company of these deservedly popular notes, I think that the Two Dollar Silver Certificate, Series of 1899, is much underrated.

The central design consists of a bust of George Washington between allegorical male and female figures representing Mechanics (some sources say Trade) and Agriculture. This design is similar to the allegorical emphasis in the "Educational Series" Silver Certificates, which this note helped to replace. Ironically, it was Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage, who had rejected the 1896 Series as too lavish and having been designed by fresco painters, that approved the design of this note.

The 1899 Two Dollar Silver Certificate can be found in ten signature combinations, of which the Napier-Thompson note is the rarest and thus the most costly.

NOTE: The Leisy Brothers Brewery got its start in Keokuk at the time of the Civil War. The firm's founder was actually just one man named Leisy--John Leisy. He and Jacob Baehr rented a brewery that Adolph Vockerodt had established in 1855, but by 1868 the firm of Leisy and Brother was listed as the proprietor of the Union Brewery at the corner of Thirteenth and Johnson Streets.

In the early 1880's the proprietor of the Union Brewery was given as Leisy Brothers, although it may be that the brothers in the firm's name were the two sons of John Leisy, Edward C. and Gustavus A. Leisy. They were listed as living with Mrs. John Leisy, a widow, at the corner of Thirteenth and Johnson, i.e., right next door to the brewery. A Rudolph Leisy is listed as being the proprietor of a saloon.

By the end of the 1880's, the Leisy Brothers Brewery had relocated to Peoria, Illinois. What remained at the 1301 Johnson Street address was listed as a wholesale beer depot, which was managed by the agent for Leisy Brothers, John Leisy. This John Leisy was undoubtedly the grandson and namesake of the firm's founder. He and his wife Margaret lived at 1102 Concert Street from the turn of the century until his death nearly thirty years later. Margaret Leisy was still living at this address in 1959 when Raymond E. Garrison published his Tales of Early Keokuk Homes.

It is, of course, possible that this token was used at a bar or saloon that the Leisy Brothers operated in Peoria--if such a saloon ever existed. However, John Leisy did operate a saloon in Keokuk during the first few years of the twentieth century. It was located at 30 South Twelfth Street. W.F. Brinkman became the owner of this saloon in 1904 or 1905.

SIZE: 23 mm. METAL: Al. SHAPE: Rd.

NOTE: This is yet another of the tokens issued by Keokuk's Moose Lodge No. 704. Eight tokens (by variety) are recorded altogether. This one was undoubtedly issued during the years that the Moose met at 19 North Fifth Street.

OBV. ASK FOR / Odells (in script) / WEMAKIT / JEWELRY / 5 STORES

REV. GOOD FOR / 5¢ / IN TRADE

SIZE: 21 mm. METAL: WM SHAPE: Rd.

NOTE: Odell's five stores were located in Quincy, Illinois; Keokuk, Iowa; Hannibal, Missouri; Palmyra, Missouri; and Mount Sterling, Illinois. Thus, this is a five city, three state token. The Keokuk store was located at 404 Main Street in the 1920's and '30's, and at 419 Main Street in the 1940's and '50's. It was managed by A.C. (Fred) Odell and then, in the 1950's, his widow, Alta, is listed as the owner and his son, Charles, is the manager. The Odells had another son, Wilbur, who was an optometrist in Keokuk. They lived at 1024 Grand Avenue.

REV. CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE / DONT WORRY CLUB / (three four-leaf clovers, one to the left, one to the right, and one in the center of a downward curving horseshoe) / LUCKY TALISMAN / F.C. OVERTON, PRESIDENT

SIZE: 33 mm. METAL: WM SHAPE: Rd.

NOTE: Fernando C. Overton was an adjuster for the Iowa State Insurance Company at the turn of the century. By 1910, he was not only the president of the Standard Fire Insurance Company of Iowa, but the general manager of the Overton-Klein Company and the treasurer of the Iowa Fire Association. Overton had retired by the mid-1920's. He and his wife Martha lived in at least four different Keokuk locations. They had a son, Fred, who followed his father into the insurance business. Both father and son had died by the mid-1930's, but there is a Harry C. Overton listed in the 1933 Keokuk directory as an actor.

RE: A Daily Radio Program on Coins

DATE: May 1992

The coin collecting hobby needs your help.

Starting October 5, there will be a daily radio program--2 1/2 minutes long--about numismatics. The show, called "Money Talks," will be carried by 389 National Public Radio and 85 Business Radio Network stations.

We are paying professional writers for all 260 scripts, and our editor has 13 years experience as an editor for CBS radio.

The show is aimed toward the general public and will focus on the lore of numismatics. Each show is based upon an intriguing or amazing fact that listeners will be certain to remember. Free transcripts will be available to listeners who request them. According to Donn Pearlman, an announcer for CBS Radio, we have the capability of reaching several million listeners each week.

For those stations unable to pick up the program's satellite transmission, cassette tapes can be sent directly to them. Programs for an entire month would be available on one 60-minute tape. The cost, including postage, is $5.50 per month. If the station can pick up the satellite transmission, there is no cost.

Would your club be willing to contact a prestigious local radio station with a high listenership and urge them to carry the show? Secondly, could you initially underwrite the $5.50/month cost of the tape? This would eliminate any expense for the station. Perhaps this could lead to a relationship between your club and the station which might prove beneficial.

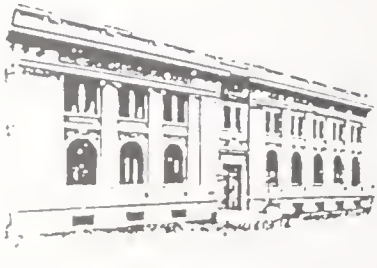

A 14-minute "demo-promo" tape of our first six shows is available for you to give to interested station managers. Please call or write, and I will send it to you immediately.

If you are interested, you will need to move quickly since station managers will be planning their fall schedules soon.

Your questions and comments would be appreciated--please call or write me for more information. And, thanks for any help or support you can provide.

Dear Numismatic Colleagues,

Are you aware that the American Numismatic Society has the most comprehensive numismatic research library in the world, with over 100,000 books, periodicals, catalogs, and manuscripts?

Do you know that the American Numismatic Society is a leading publisher of 200 major numismatic works, a prestigious journal, a semi-annual numismatic bibilography, as well as annotated slide sets and educational videotapes?

Do you know that the American Numismatic Society, often called the ANS, offers the only graduate seminar in numismatics in the western hemisphere?

Do you know that the ANS sponsors the Coinage of the Americas Conference, each year bringing together acclaimed speakers on American topics?

Are you aware that you can become a member of the ANS and keep with the best in numismatic scholarship available anywhere?

I am very proud of my longtime involvement with America's most distinguished numismatic organization. I invite you to read the enclosed brochure and become better acquainted with the ANS. Pleas write or call the Society for more information on our programs, publications and services.

Sincerely yours,

R. Henry Norweb, Jr.

R. Henry Norweb, Jr.
President

P.S. On November 7, 1992, the ANS will sponsor the annual Coinage the Americas Conference. The theme is CANADA'S MONEY, in honor of the 125th anniversary of Canada. Consider joining me for this outstanding event, when experts on Canadian coinage, medals, tokens and paper money present illustrated lectures and discuss their work

FROM THE PRESIDENT & EDITOR:

Well, I know I have said this before but I finally believe it to now be true. This will be my last issue to edit of the Iowa Collector, at least for awhile. I still hope to write a few articles occasionally, but I have been asked to do outdoor sports columns for a local newspaper and hope to dedicate more time in this endeavor. The new President will be in charge of filling this void that I am leaving.

With that over I wish to thank the Keokuk Coin Club and Tom Gardner in particularly for furnishing an edition of the Iowa Collector. This is that Special edition.

The ballots are now out, if you have paid your dues you should have received one. Don't feel bad however, due to an oversight of mine and possibly of the Secretary-Treasurer's I didn't realize my dues were past due. So, I never received a ballot. For President, running uncontested is Dean Peterson of Sioux City; 1st Vice-President & 2nd Vice-President are open to write-ins, as well as the Secretary-Treasurer's position; District 1 has nominated Ward Kain, #2 is open, #3 has nominated Gene Bright of Cedar Falls, #4 is open, #5 has nominated Don Mark of Adel, #6 has nominated Don Mc Culloch of Spirit Lake, and #7 is open for District Directors. Directors-at-Large nominated so far are Harry Peters of Kanawha and Thomas Robertson of Iowa City.

Answers to last issues Trivia questions were: The six Iowa Coin Dealers? Lonnie Mc Coy, Owen McKee, Bob Harden, Gordon Krone, Leroy Lindblom, and Ray Ryan. The Mysterious Lady? None other than my wife Becky. The 1895 Morgan Dollar was offered for sale in the I.N.A. Annual Coin Convention Auction held in Waterloo, where it was bid to a price of $25,500.

Answers to the second set of 10 trivia questions were:

1. President Carlos Antonio Lopez.
2. American Banknote Company.
3. Discovery of America.
4. Hungary or Czechoslovakia.
5. Vishr.
6. Death of Slovak writer Paul Orsagh-Hviez Doslav.
7. 20.
8. Discovery of copper in Musashi Province.
9. Lost purchasing power, quality, and counterfeiting.
10. Christopher Bechtler in 1830.

Well in hindsight I have came to one of three conclusions in our trivia quiz.

1. Interest in coins, the silver offering, and trivia questions are at an all time low.
2. All of us are numismatically illiterate or don't have any research material.
3. Or nobody reads or responds to the Iowa Collector.

This is not meant to be negative, but in these times if we can't get enthused ourselves how do we expect to enthuse others. Believe it or not I never received one correct answer to any of the questions.

And, onward we go! The schedule for the I.N.A. Coin Convention is as follows

October 10th, 1992

Show set up opens to Dealers at	7:00AM
Meeting of the old Board at	9:15AM
Show opens to the Public at	10:00AM
Seminar on Ancient Coins at	11:00AM
Coin Auction Lot Viewing begins	12:00PM
Show closes for the day at	4:00PM
Coin Auction begins at	6:00PM

October 11th, 1992

Dealers will be allowed in at	8:00AM
Morning Worship available at	8:00AM
General Membership Meeting at	8:30AM
Meeting of the new Board at	9:30AM
Show opens to the public at	10:00AM
Show closes to the public at	4:00PM

I am looking forward to seeing you at our annual convention, it is sure to be a great one with lots of free drawings throughout the days.

Sincerely Yours:

Owen C. McKee

SECRETARY OF STATE

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT

August 12, 1992

IOWA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

has filed an amendment to its articles of incorporation under the provisions of Iowa Code chapter 504 , effective August 12, 1992,

CHANGE DURATION FROM 08-12-1992 TO PERPETUAL

STATE OF IOWA SECRETARY OF STATE SEAL

Elaine Baxter

SECRETARY OF STATE

FROM THE SECRETARY'S DESK-

It doesn't seem possible that summer is about at an end, and school will soon be starting across Iowa. Harry's father passed away on June 24th, and I spent the first two weeks of August in the hospital, so haven't personally been too active in the Coin hobby or business the past two months.

The Okoboji Coin Show is tomorrow in Spirit Lake, and we always look forward to this show, and checking out the Paper Money Museum. I would recommend the Museum to any of you who have not had the opportunity to spend time there, you would find it both interesting and a pleasant way to spend a couple of hours on a hot day. It always brings memories of the first Open House the I.N.A. hosted when I was Secretary before. I remember the eight pans of bars I baked seemed to go over the two days along with lots of coffee. We miss seeing Bill Higgins there, and his interest in the currency and post cards. He always had time to show us the new additions at the Museum.

Our Vice-President in charge of the nominations- Dean Peterson- sent me the list of nominees to mail out acceptances or refusals to serve. Please give this election your support. We will have several blanks where write-ins will be necessary as there were no names nominated. No names appear on the ballot automatically.

I know the Ottumwa Coin Club is working hard on the State Show which will be there in October. Thirty years ago they also sponsored an I.N.A. Annual Show. I have a Commemorative year set holder from the 1962 show. Does anyone know why they were made? Perhaps as a door prize?

I want to thank Bob Ulstad, our legal advisor, for the work he did for the I.N.A. in renewing our Charter. Our incorporation ran out its 50 years on August 14, 1992. We now are incorporated for as long as the I.N.A. exists.

Remember to mark your ballots and send them back by the due date, so they are valid.

Hope to see many of you in Ottumwa if not at a show before.

Numismatically Yours:

JoAnn Peters.
